

Christine Marie Pisani

August 27, 1949 - December 2, 2020

On Wednesday, December 2, 2020, Christine Marie Pisani of Huntington, NY, loving parent of two stepchildren and grandmother of five, passed away at age 71.

Christine was born on August 27, 1949 to Alfred and Virginia Pisani of Plainfield, New Jersey. She graduated from the College of Mount St. Vincent with a bachelors in French language and literature. Christine then went on to receive her M.B.A. in finance from Fordham University's Gabelli School of Business before becoming an executive assistant at Russell Reynolds Associates.

Christine had a passion for traveling and discovering the many beauties of the world. After spending her junior year in college abroad in Paris, she fell in love with the city, becoming at heart, a true Parisian. Christine, or "Grandma C" as she was known by many, shared her passions for the world in countless ways. After moving to Huntington to be closer to her family, she became active in the Marble Hills community, served on the Board of Directors, participated in the Gourmet Group, brought her grandchildren to the Block Party and attended the wine tasting even though she never drank. She also hosted High Tea in the winter, baked the best cookies, and sang in the choir at the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Huntington. Christine was known for her quick wit, graciousness, and her deeply kind and loving spirit.

Christine was preceded in death by her father, Alfred, her mother, Virginia, and her late husband, the honorable Judge William Kirchgaessner. She is survived by two brothers, Matthew and Alfred, three sisters, Mary Jane, Virginia, and Roseann, her stepchildren Laura and Paul, son-in-law, Xavier, daughter-in-law, Heather, her grandchildren Sabrina, Kaleb, Kenny, Isabella, and Violet, as well as 16 nieces and nephews.

A viewing will be held on Sunday, December 6th, 2020, at A.L. Jacobsen Funeral Home located at 1380 New York Avenue, Huntington from 2-4 p.m. followed by a memorial service at 5 p.m. held over Zoom:

Christine was one of my first friends. She and her sister Mary Jane lived right across the street from me until we were 5 years old. When my family moved across town, the Pisani family also moved to just a few blocks from my family! Our birthdays were 2 weeks apart and we saw each other daily at St. Joseph's School. Her beautiful smile in this video reminds me of our happy childhood. That smile now lights up Heaven.

“ Chris was so kind and sensitive, and she had a wonderful sense of humor. I remember her wide sunny smile. Chris' calm good nature always made her seem wiser than most of us when we were at the Mount. She will be missed.

“ Chrissy was a college friend who was always up for a good time. She had a marvelous sense of adventure and was a true “Renaissance” woman. Although her passing is sad, I take consolation in knowing she has been reunited with her beloved Willie.

“ Chrissy was a lovely person, a true lady, with a great wit , and a curiosity about everything. I'll miss her book buddy reviews . Seeing her at Brigid and Ron's home, as well as at our CMSV gatherings was always a pleasure. By the way, Chrissy was the number one ranked graduate of the French department in college. I'll miss you, laughing now at our antics on the fifth floor of our freshman dormitory . Chrissy was always up for participating in our plans of attack vs. the good sisters . Godspeed, dear lady.
