“ Share a memory, this says.. how does one share just one memory of someone who has been part of your life for so many years?

Jerry was a great dad, and I believe an even better poppy. He was an amazing son, and brother, he deeply loved his family and was a good friend to so many.

As for memories.

The day he dropped the engine in moms car and we had to call dad.

His terrapin toe

When he brought home the sweetest outfit when our Sammy was born

When he and Mike went out for smokes on mother's day, and didnt come back

So many memo6of Jerry and Mike, I dare not put in public

Those months at the house in Kings Park

The Canoe that flipped in the river and just dissapeared

Traveling from Dead show to Dead show, seeing his face the moment that first note was played, every night

The first Jerry show we went to together and it rained indoors

The guy who kept flipping his hair, at another show and he was so mad, but it turned out to be a good friend.

When he was sleeping, but he shot the turtle

One of the first calls I was on with him, and I heard a bang bang, said what was that, he says, Jimmy's head

When we had dinner with mom and dad, and pop needed vice grips for the wine

When his whole family told me their brother was buried next door

Telling grandma I can play the piano

Hanging out at oakwood road park

Picking up a stranger during a hurricane to drop him off at the beach

The old man who noogied his head

Jerry Jam

The first time he took me to see the Wolfe Tones

The day Jerry Garica died

The birth of our babies

The joy of being a poppy

The good times and the bad times, the friendship we shared. The talks, the walks, the texts, our love of the same music..the love we have for our kids, that's eternal

Jerry has always been in my heart, and that wont change. He will be missed immensely

May the four winds blow you safely home my friend

“ Our Condolences to the Family , Jerry will be missed, But Never forgotten.... We are all still in Shock.

We will always remember the good times with him, and will continue them with His children. My whole family will always keep Jerry in our Prayer's. And, Yes the Chili's Crew will Buy you your beer, and will keep you in our Football pool as well.. For Ever in our Hearts.... Rest in peace my dear Friend...
