“ Oh cousin, I'm lost without you. How we would talk for hours. Remembering our Mom's the "Bobsie Twins". sitting in Pathmark Parking Lot for two hours talking even though they lived next door and talked every day. Going out of their way because bananas were 2 cents cheaper. Wondering why we couldn't see our toes anymore while our hands were glued to the potato chip bag. Experiencing our cancer battles but winning! Thinking how you always went above & beyond for your family. Such a void in my heart, but you are finally back with your Roy. Give him a hug & kiss for me! Cousin Judy.

“ Here's to a life well lived. To me, Joan was the consummate hostess always setting those around her at ease with grace and humor. Serving her community was a way of life. She will be greatly missed. - John Hobgood
