“ Unfortunately I lost contact with Adam after high school but I haven't forgotten what a genuinely good person he was. I will remember the fun times that we shared with Mike, D-Mitch, Jamie, Matt and the rest of the gang always.

“ Although it had been some time since I'd seen Adam, I never forgot how he stood by me as a loyal and supportive friend. He knew how to bring a smile to anyone's face, and I will smile when I remember him.

Lisa Novick Bloom - June 20, 2015 at 09:26 AM

“ Adam was a genuine person. He was my first friend when I moved to Huntington as a little girl and I have many, many fond memories of my friend from that time and all through high school. He was nice to everyone and its truly tragic his life was cut short. His impact on the people that knew him was huge. May you rest in peace Adam. You were loved and will be missed.

Do we know what happened to him. I found out two years after he had passed and feel horrible that I wasn't there at the services. We had lost touch for a little while and then he randomly called me came to my house The day before he passed. He hung out for about two hours and told me he had a job interview at TD Bank the next day and I told him to follow up and let me know how it goes. I never heard from him again. I think about him all the time.

“ Adam was the funniest guy - he was a genius, from Fort Lauderdale to Scranton USA, from Vermont to Belmont, and from AC/DC to front row at Islanders games, we had more fun than most... life will never be the same. This is the most tragic news ever. We have lost a rare SuperStar... a one of a kind gift to humanity.

I don't know if you remember me but I went to college without him. We met and hung out many times. Is there any way you can contact me off this site so I can talk to you for a minute. I honestly didn't even know Adam had passed and couldn't understand why he wasn't returning phone calls for so long after coming to my house in 2015.

Shoot me a text if that works but I just wanted to talk to you for a minute

“ Adam was a terrific kid, who always greeted our family with great warmth and happiness. He had a way of making us all feel like we were old friends, even when he was nine or ten. He had a true hail-fellow -well- met style and he will be sadly missed.
