“ Dear Andrian

I didn't know you as well as most, but we did work together in a few places. We had some fun times together as you always made things fun with your dry sense of humor. I(we)will miss you.

If you see Peter tell him I love him. Will miss you

“ Hawk,

You were one in a million! You will be greatly missed. There will always be a smile on my face when when i think about the fun times we shared on and of the golf course. You are one of a kind....

i love you,

Nicky

“ Uncle Adrian,

It would be difficult to try and remember a time in my life without your presence....

...As a child you were on my back porch almost every Sunday, laughing and enjoying good comraderie. As a teenager, I was opening clams while you were serving cocktails at Joe's King Neptune and as an adult I looked forward to bringing My Mother to the Mill Pond Inn for cocktails, Mussels, music and your warm freindship.

You influence has always been warm, welcoming and wonderful....

Thank you, Michael

“ What a great pleasure to have known such a generous and direct man.

I know God will be generous with Adrian and take him home.
