“ Dear Dan and family,
I am ever so sorry about the tragic loss of your beautiful son, Alek. I, too, lost a son suddenly at the age of 31, so I do feel and understand your pain.
You have suffered the ULTIMATE tragedy and there are no words of comfort that any mortal being has to explain, understand or lessen this pain.
Perhaps your precious Alek was too special to live in this imperfect world. For now and forever, you and your family have to keep him alive in your hearts and minds by cherishing all the memories of good times that you shared. Dan, look up at the sky. The brightest star will be your Alek shining down on you and watching over you and your family.
With deep sadness for your loss, I embrace you warmly,

“Alek was a very dear friend to me in middle and high school through all of the shows we did together and late nights spent working on stage crew. He spent many hours trying to recruit me to the sailing team (in which he was unsuccessful), following me around with his camera during lunch in 7th and 8th grade, and sharing the joys of being onstage. Some of my fondest memories are the rehearsal at the CSH public library that we organized for a Midsummer Night's Dream in the aftermath of Hurricane Sandy, the final dress rehearsal of Peter Pan where we lost power during the run and could do nothing but wait in the dark together as a cast and crew, and a one particular night working together in the lighting booth where we talked for hours during the run of a show. I am so sad to hear of his sudden passing and I send so much love you all.”
