“ Love and Light to family and friends at losing the lovely Alice. For many years in our younger days we shared our group of friends/Social Worker lunches at Kura Barn sharing funny stories, interesting concepts, enjoyed great food, laughter and the latest details of our lives. My wife and I got to attend a few of Alice's poetry readings, she was a gifted and marvelous poet. And for many years while it was open, she joined my wife and I, and my wife's family for an annual New Years Eve dinner. Recently we would have the occasional lunch at her new place. Through all these years, no matter what the challenges, Alice was the same funny, intelligent, kind, thoughtful and tenacious person. She will be fondly and joyfully remembered. Love always Roger and Jane

The place we shared New Years Eve dinner was Fado's in the town of Huntington, she loved it and my family and I looked forward to seeing her every year. Thank you Alice for helping me the first year I had to be a poetry judge for high school kids. And I loved that we would always remember each other with birthday cards and Christmas cards. I saw you as a strong, vibrant person with an incredible sense of humor in spite of some really tough challenges. Heaven is blessed to have you, lovely lady. Love, Jane

Saddened to learn of the death of my friend and colleague, Alice Byrne.
Alice was a wise and gifted therapist. who understood people deeply. I'll miss her keen insights and witty comments. Alice presented in Belfast with many of us when we flew across the pond and ran groups for our Irish colleagues after the Troubles ended. Alice was a member of the group department of the PostGraduate Center for Mental Health, EGPS, AGPA and IAGP, where many of us knew her. Writing poetry was a gift of Alice's, as was her understanding of the importance of sibling relationships in life. May her memory always be a blessing.

“ Alice was an esteemed colleague and friend of mine at the Postgraduate Center and EGPS. In fact her Sibling and Family of Origin workshops at EGPS in 1994 with Jerry Leff and Manny Shapiro inspired me to dedicate my professional life to group therapy. Alices middle name was Passionate...passionate about the PGC alumni association, poetry, group therapy conferences, her family and grandkids. Alice would fight for what she believed. I will always remember her heartfelt laugh. It was priceless. Peace and love to her family and friends. Joseph Lynch
