“ This Halloween would have made 6 years to the day when I first laid eyes on you, Kiddo. I never thought I would be doing this. All I am left with is a love for you that burns like an eternal flame in my heart and soul. Feeling more in love with you than ever before, knowing only what you always said in response: "I love you more", as the tears come to my eyes. Remembering all the great times we shared, You, me and your best friend Al were like 3 points on a triangle. "We work well together" one of the first things I told you. I have wanted to hear your voice 1000 times a day and I still tell you what I am doing every day. I miss your "daily missives" your smile, that crazy look in your eyes, how you made me forget everything and laugh. Tomorrow Sabba will have her first professional school picture taken, and I will bring you one. I made a collage for you I know you are gonna love. Well, like you often said, I gotta get now, but I'm gonna let you go without letting you go... We hold your family close, and I've been talking with them Our deepest condolences to everyone. LU Kiddo, in a Nano

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.
