“ When Andy married our mom Virginia, he and she complimented each other in so many ways. They traveled together to Europe and enjoyed a winter home in Florida for a while. Andy loved my mom so much that he nick-named and loved calling her Passionata, which made her, and all of us in the family laugh. But their faith in Jesus, the Rosary and the Roman Catholic Church was what made their marriage so beautiful and helped them to hold onto each other during my mother's illness. Andy was always there for our mom as she fought through the devastating and cruel effects of Parkinson's disease. Somehow their faith together grew stronger as well as their love for each other during this very difficult time of their lives. Andy did everything humanly possible for my mom and he was truly a part of our family. We loved him in so many ways and will miss that great smile and the sparkle he always had in his eyes, We will forever hold him precious and dear because he was such a good, kind, and wonderful man, Thank you again Andy for being such an important part of our lives and may God shower you with blessings, as you were such a blessing to our mom and all of us. With much love,
John and Maureen
