“Mary and I sang together in the St. Hughes choir, After we became fast friends I met Anthony. What a regal man and charming too. Mary asked me to visit him while she was away in Florida and he told me all about his time in the service and more importantly how much he loved and admired Mary. He was truly concerned about her happiness! He was a kind man and I will miss him calling me "dear" whenever I called for Mary. Such an en"dear"ing word that is not used much anymore. He will be greatly missed!

“I first met Anthony after shoulder surgery about 30 yrs ago,I was his physical therapist and worked with him for weeks until he regained full function.I always enjoyed his visits as he always had a mischievous twinkle in his blue eyes and had the Irish gift of gab As I got to know him.On his last treatment session he showed up in a tuxedo and brought a case of champagne to distribute to staff for all the help and months of rehab ,a class act! In the many years since we have shared our faith at St Hugh of Lincoln RC Church where he had a time in the choir and Mary still sings.I will truly miss you my friend ,enjoy and reap your heavenly reward.My deepest condolences to Mary and the entire family,Maureen Restivo
