“ Grandpa,

It's been 17 months since we lost you. I miss you so much and it's still so hard. The only thing that keeps me going is knowing there is no more pain. I just want to thank you for all the memories, laughs, vacations, sleep overs and everything else you did for me. I love you more than anything in the world & miss you everyday. Rest peacefully grandpa. I love you xoxo

“ So tomorrow is Thanksgiving, the first real holiday without you. Although i'm so sad that you're gone, I have to remember that I was so lucky to have you. I miss you like crazy but could never ask to have you the way you were. That wasn't really you. I am so glad you aren't suffering anymore because you certainly didn't deserve it. I am thankful to have had you in my life, to share so many memories with and most of all to be able to call you my Grandpa. I miss you Grandpa and wish I could see your face at the other end of the table tomorrow but I know you'll be there in spirit. Rest peacefully Grandpa. I love you xoxo

“ Grandpa,

It's been almost 9 months since you left us. A lot has gone on and things would have been so much easier with you here. I miss you more and more everyday. Whoever said it would get easier was a liar! I hope you're resting peacefully. I love you more then anything and miss you more then you will ever know. Rest peacefully Grandpa. I love you xoxo

“ Tony (Dad), It's been 5 months since you left us and we are all having a hard time dealing with it. We wish you were here...But at the same time we are glad you are in a better place. I would cut off my right arm for another day with you. You were a 2nd father to me, my best friend and a huge influence on my life. I will never forget you and I will love you 4ever. :)

“ It's me again! I just wanted to tell you that I love you more than anything in the world and I miss you like crazy. It's still so unreal. I wish I could pick up the phone and call you, give you one more hug, one more kiss and give you one more bowl of ice cream (I figured they had ice cream in heaven or you wouldn't have gone) We're taking care of grandma like we promised. Everything is so strange without you. I miss your laugh and that smile that could light up the room along with all of the stories that would make everyone stop talking just so they could hear you. I miss you and love you so much! Even though I still cry when I think of you I know you're in a much better place. I love you more than I could explain and I wish I didn't have to go on without you. Keep watching over us. I love you Grandpa xoxoxox Your main squeeze, Nicole

“ Grandpa,
There are days I sit here and cry my eyes out wishing I could have another day with you but I know you wouldn't want that. The truth is, I am so thankful for the time we had together. You weren't just a grandpa, you were my best friend. I hope to be even half as great as you were one day. You taught me so much and will always be my hero. Every November when I get in the woods, I know you'll be sitting there next to me smiling and waiting for me to get a deer. I will always miss you, but you are finally at peace. You always have a place in my heart. Thanks for all the memories and all the love you gave to me. Love you so much.

“ Grandpa,
The thought of writing in this guestbook in the beginning was unreal. It's been almost 3 months and I still can't believe you're gone. I miss you more and more everyday and would do anything for 5 more minutes with you. I love you more then you will ever know and still can't imagine how I am going to go on without you. Rest peacefully Grandpa. I love you!

“ Anthony,

Even though we infrequently crossed paths growing up, I always considered you like my second older brother and always looked forward to hearing your unique "take" on things. In the last few years I appreciated those timely phone calls of encouragement when I had some health and other issues. Hearing from you always brightened up my day and changed whatever mood I was in to upbeat. What I learned most from you is that every situation, no matter how stressful, could always have a funny side. You were truly unique and "one of a kind" and it was my pleasure to have known you. Rest in the peace that you so deserve. I will miss you.

“ Tony, I always thought of you as my best friend. All the great times we had in our bachelor days. Then the girls came. How lucky we were to have such good times together, all four of us...who could have asked for more? All the fun, the jokes - one after another, laugh until we cried. Now my friend, you are smiling on all of us. We love you and will miss your happy face so much.

Rest in peace.

“ *"Antny" when I heard today that we had lost you, it broke my heart. You were always such a bright light in our lives with your laughing eyes and infectious giggle. I'll never forget when you bought me my first puppy. You were my hero!
You had a way of telling a story that brought everyone to tears of laughter. You and I shared many birthday cakes over the years and I loved it! You will be greatly missed, but there's comfort in the knowledge that you're no longer in pain. I know this is true because I hear your laughter as I write this. Rest well!
With All Our Love*
