“ We surely missed being there with you all. It saddened me when and still does, when I heard that my brother "Artie" passed away. He was a kind brother to us all. May we all be comforted with peace. Of all the siblings, he was the only one with a middle name. While growing up, as he was 12 years older than myself, he always wanted to remind me that I do my homework from school, because he was always reminded to do his, because he enjoyed going out to play soccer. His reminder stuck with him into his adult life. He really enjoyed caring for horses, especially while the family took vacations, that's all he would talk about his vacation. On my 10th birthday, he bought me a Timex watch, which I had for many years. May God comfort you all at this time.
