“ We mourn the loss of a gentle, kind and loving lady who joined our family many years ago. She, Eddie and the "boys" shared many holidays together. As the years passed we had weddings and births and the family grew. We all loved her Swedish accent and her cube of sugar in the coffee. She will be missed by all.

Bruce and Gary, so sorry for your loss. I have such fond memories of our family gatherings at your parents' home, and can still see Astrid in the kitchen with her apron on talking away happily. She was a sweet lady. My deepest condolences to you and your family.

“ Numb with sadness at this news I learned moments ago this evening. Mrs Eisenhuth was probably the closest I had to a second Mom during junior high and high school years in the early 1970s. Along with Mr Ed Eisenhuth, they always greeted me with warmth and love, along with caring conversation about my family. Years later after moving up to NJ from GA, Kim & I would typically visit around the long Labor Day holiday weekend to say hello, catch-up and let Eddie and Astrid see how our daughters were growing up. I recall a funny childhood exchange with Gary and Bruce about their Mom's accent. "Our Mom has an accent?!" Her Swedish/Finish accent was music to my ears. What a wonderfully sweet, caring, loving human being! I love you Mrs Eisenhuth. See you later. XO
