“ Titi Austria wasn't just strong; she was the heart of so many of our memories. I can still picture our family gathered at her house—my mom, Uncle Papo, and Uncle Angel—sharing bread with cheese, sipping her famous bostello coffee, and singing together. Those moments, filled with laughter, warmth, and love, are treasures we will hold onto forever.

She was a woman of strength, wisdom, and discipline—the one aunt we all knew not to mess with

Rest in peace, Titi Austria. You will always be in our hearts.

“ To my beloved cousin Austria. You are my cousin from Tio Dali who was your mother's brother. I remembered my aunt was a tough and a very serious mother as well to family except my father who she loved dearly. Austria and her siblings loved their Tio Dali as well. I was around 6yrs old when my father drove to see all in Brooklyn. Austria was sweet but serious which had some of her mother's characteristics. We were only allowed to be in the living room and Austria made some facial expressions that made me laugh. My Aunt gave me a looked and I stopped. □ Wally, I have not have the pleasure of meeting you but your mother was awesome and was strong in spirit. I will say this quote: “The world changes from year to year our lives from day to day but the love and memories of Austria shall never pass. My condolences to my family, and their family and friends a prayer of healing 🙏 □ □ cousin Norma

“ I am so happy that I got to reconnect with Wally, Austria, and family I had not seen for many years. It was such a delight to have family in person and on Zoom visit her. My greatest memory of that was when we all made her smile. I know she was happy to be with everyone. I know you are pain free and reuniting with those that went to heaven before you. Austria, I will never forget you ❤️

“ From the moment I met you. You accepted me and showed me much love. You blessed me with your daughters hand in marriage. We bumb heads here and there but the love and laughter made it worth it. I loved cooking for you and watch you enjoy it. Loved our conversation of God and the lessons learned. I will forever keep my promise to you. Love you and see you in paradise 🙏🙏❤️

“ One of the most wonderful thing I remember about Austria (and her sisters) is they made such delicious food! I will never forget when I was young, she gave me authentic Spanish rice and beans and it was THE BEST!! I have good memories of Austria and feel glad I was able to see her recently and share memories with her. She will be missed.❤️

“ I was Austria’s home care provider for a couple of months while she was living in Pa with her lovely daughter Wally and her beautiful family.

The memories that I have of her will always be cherished. We shared many laughs together. One of my fondest memories of her was getting all “dolled” up when visitors came over. She loved when I combed and styled her hair and put her makeup on. Austria was a DIVA in her o n way and mind telling people that she got it.

I’m very thankful for the time that I got to share with her. Her and Wally always made me feel like family.

Sleep In Heavenly Peace Austria. Always in my heart ❤️

“ My mother. The most unique person. She was like no other. Very tough woman and not easy but she was still my mother, and I did and forever will honor her. She did all knew how to make sure we were good. We never went without. She was the best cook in the entire family til this day. (Sorry fam it's the truth). I will carry you in my heart forever mommy. I love you beyond forever!!!!!!
