“ If there was a way for Barbara to "not give up", she'd have found it. She was one of the strongest and most steadfast women I've ever known. I met Barbara in her capacity as a riding instructor, and she was doing all she could to keep me seated on that horse. I was afraid to fall off--not of the horse or the ground, but of her! I maintained that the horse was trying to kill me...she said I got what I deserved because I let the horse call the shots. I knew within seconds that she was right, and I never doubted her again. Her brand of tough love was just the ticket that kept me trying. It didn't take me long to fall in love with her as a wonderful person and a caring and compassionate friend. Barbara appreciated people for their merits and had the grace to allow their faults. She meant so much to so many people, and she left an indelible mark on this plane. It was a privilege to have known such a wise, worldly and down-to-earth woman. Cheers, Barbara; until we meet again.

“ I am shocked and saddened to hear of Barbara's passing. I remember her as a dedicated teacher and coach who positively impacted the lives of hundreds of students. May she ride forever through beautiful wildflower covered hills.
