“ As a kid I remember going to weddings and my dad would always grab Barbara and do a jitter-bug/lindy. They would always clear the floor and that made me want to dance just like them. Aside from that...my cousin Barbara was such a great person. I will miss talking with her and laughing but now she is with her husband. Rest in Peace.

I met & spent time with Barabara over the years at family gatherings during various holidays, hosted by her son Steve & his wife Linda. Barbara was always warm & friendly to me just like the rest of her family, & I always felt welcomed & included.

I'm sure Aunt Barbara is enjoying seeing her beloved big brother Alphonse A. Amato who loved her dearly

If I try real hard, I can imagine my dad, Alphonse Amato standing with his beloved Camille while my Uncle Frank is nearby in anticipation of something. Suddenly Barbara appears & there is immense joy & happiness in Heaven. Frank & Barbara reunited along with beloved brother Alphonse & Camille. All four hug & now gloriously spend eternity together. ❤️❤️❤️❤️
