“ I look at her face and immediately think of Old First Church and my parent's generation. She was always so kind and loving; a fixture of OFC, which I found to be of comfort whenever I saw her. I am soo thankful she lived and was able to bless you all for so many years! Having lost my folks, I know how hard it is not to be able to relish the physicality of hugs, kisses, and conversation; however, we are so blessed in their having taught us and encouraged our faith in Jesus Christ as the avenue through which we can be joined together again whenever our time comes! In the meantime, our loved ones serve as our angels going forward. I know one thing that especially helped and comforted me upon reflection was how all my sisters and I share a love of birds, gardening, music, rocks and more, which mom imparted to us. In these ways, it is like she continues to live with and blanket us. Big virtual hugs, and know that she touched many lives whom share your loss in those unique ways that she touched them. xo

“ I'm so so sorry for your loss. I have many fond memories of your mom/wife/grandma especially in Old First Church. I'm so glad mom, Lynn, and I were able to see her at the last TUXIS reunion. Blessings, Holly Miller

“ As you all know, I have considered Carl and Carol my second and adopted parents for most of my life. Every time I would come within 500 miles of Huntington, I knew I had to visit. And up through the last time I did a few months ago, I still and always feel the inspiration and loving atmosphere that is always there in that home. I will see in a couple of weeks, but for now, to everyone in the family, accept my long distance hug in remembrance and memory of this great lady.

“ Barbara, may you and your family find comfort in each other in the loss of your Mom.

You were so fortunate to have her in your lives for so long. You were able to make so many memories together. These will forever be in your heart and mind.

Fondly, Shirley

“ Dear Mr. Saenger, Barbara, Nancy and Scott, Karen and Paul and family,

I am so sorry for your loss. Mrs. Saenger was a sweet and funny lady, who I know holds a special place in all your hearts. May your memories of time spent together with your wife and mom bring you peace.

With hugs and prayers,

Amy House

“ Dear Carl, Barbara, Nancy and Scott, Karen and Paul and Family,

We are so saddened to hear of Carol's passing. Carol was a good friend to Irene as they raised their kids in Halesite. They shared carpooling, lots of phone calls and activities in the community. Later, they looked forward to and enjoyed lunches in downtown Huntington where they caught up on all the family activities.

Carol was a good soul and lived a long and caring life. May she rest in peace with the angels.

Sending love and comfort to dear, life-long friends.
