“ Colleen, I am so so sorry for your loss. Know that you've gained an angel in heaven to watch over you. Just as in life, she will want you to be strong and flourish.

I pray that you will find peace and comfort very soon. I know that with your new angel you will have the strength and courage to go on. Remember her bright smile and adventurous spirit, and know she wants you to keep going-she expects you to carry on and make the best, as she often did.

I think back to the days when I had the privilege of participating in many adventures with your Mom... Southhold for the summers, biking around, Greenport, CCD carpools (you guys racing up to my house with the windows down and sunroof open), flea markets, craft sales, shelter rescue of Misty, and so many more happy events! She was always smiling and so full of energy!

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ The best mom. Period. I know everyone thinks THEY have the best mom, but they are mistaken. She couldn't have worked any harder, cared any more, or loved any deeper. She fought so hard from her day of diagnosis until the end. So much more life to be lived. I ask that everyone pray for a cure for all cancers to end this insanity. Mom, I hope you know how much that Matthew, Sean and I love you - and always will. We stayed by your side to make sure you never felt alone. I hope you know that we were there. Ruby misses you very, very much and I promise to keep you alive in both her and Finnean. I love you more than you'll ever know. Please look over Matthew and Sean and the family. For me, I am asking that you hold my hand through the rest of my life, and NEVER let it go. I need you the most. I love you with all of my heart - my best friend and perfect mother. I LOVE YOU!!!!!!

The memories I have of you mother are countless. Car pooling to CCD, when my mom was recovering from surgery, your mom had to get me to go into private confession or you weren't allowed to make your holy communion. She had to call my mom and explain there was a little problem, and that she could not get me into first the confession, and I wouldn't be able to make my holy communion. Our nightly walks through Cold Spring hills, with Oliver. So many, but not one memory I remember was without a huge smile on her face. I know she is so proud of you Colleen, Sean and Matt. She knows what you did for her and knows she was never alone though those horrible, scary months. She will be right with you through all your life, guiding you and holding your hand with a HUGE smile.

Dear Colleen, Matt & Sean

*Don't think of her as gone away
Her journeys just begun
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one*

*Just think of her as resting
From the sorrows & the tears
In a place of warmth & comfort
Where there are no days or years*

*Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away*

*And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much*

With Our Love

*The Vespo Family
Rest in Peace Cathy*
