

Charles "Chuckie" Caple

October 31, 1942 - October 18, 2021

Charles Eliot Caple Sr, also known as "Chuckie", was born October 31, 1942, at Kings County hospital, Brooklyn New York. He attended Queens College in Flushing Queens New York where he received his Associates Degree.

In 1977 he started his career with the Emergency Medical Service, City of New York, commonly known as EMS as a Motor Vehicle Operator at Green Point hospital. In 1986, Chuckie was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant.

On July 4, 1972, Chuckie met Catherine McKnight, who became Catherine Caple and enjoyed a happy union with her.

Chuckie lived a lovely full life. He, like Joseph, fathered children that were no blood related, but were heart related. He was a music enthusiast for songs in the 60's and 70's. He was an athletic person. He orchestrated and supervised the EMS bowling and softball leagues. He enjoyed classic movies and westerns. He was also a connoisseur of fine dining.

On October 18, 2021, God called him to brighten up heaven. He will be very much missed by his family and friends.

Chuckie leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Catherine Caple; his sister, Yvette Caple; brother William James Caple (deceased); children, Joanne Williams, Needham Williams and wife Tonya, Cynthia Baker and husband James, Charles Eliot Caple Jr. (deceased), Donna High and husband Curtis, David Lawrence Caple (deceased), heart-son Brad Williams and wife Annette, heart-daughter Alycia Mills; grandchildren, great-grandchildren, host of nieces, great-nieces, nephews, great nephews, cousins, and friends.
