“ 1986 walking a foot post on Jamaica Avenue from 222 Street to Springfield Avenue with Charlie while were in the Auxiliary Police in the 105 Precinct and then jumping out of the side of his ambulance in 1988 on Broadway and 46 Street to tackle a drug suspect in the 114 Precinct when I was a rookie cop. Charlie always managed to be there for me. Even as my wife and I buried our son... he was the last to leave the parking lot, standing guard tendering a salute to my family and I (a Sergeant with the NYPD...) broken as I was, he offered a gesture of respect and solace. Charlie... I shall never forget you and your family, I will miss you always. Your friend Dave.
