“ A life well-lived... Charlotte you will be missed.

Tina Marzocca - March 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ You have been a dear Aunt who has graced this world and touched my life since I was a little girl. Aunt Charlotte, you have left endearing memories for me with all of our wonderful times together; the joy of your laughter, your kindness, our closeness, the fun with family and friends, the pinochle games and Scrabble, the warmth of your home over the years, and your great outlook on life. You told me, Aunt Charlotte, not to cry for you when you left this world but in place of tears I find comfort knowing that you are at peace with loved ones who left before you. Thank you, Aunt Charlotte. I will carry you in my heart until we meet again. Blessings and love. Linda in Oregon

“ Life's race well run

Life's work well done

Life's victory won

Now cometh rest

In the hearts of those who loved you, you will always be there.

“ Sweet Charlotte,

This is to let you know how much I miss you, but you will be remembered for your great sense of humor and thoughtfulness. I always admire you got all the courage and endurance you demonstrate to us, all there goodness will keep you in my memory. You thankfulness and appreciation gives me lots of strength. It's hard to say goodbye, but the one who loves, cares and knows you most, gently holds your hands and say well done. Sleep and take your rest you'll always be my sweetpie. Love and God Bless You.

“ She will always be remembered as you share the stories and the memories of how she lived her life and how very much she meant, may you find comfort...And, throughout this difficult time, may you also know the deep sympathy and concern that is felt for you and all your family. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5
