“ Dear Tom, My condolences to you and all your family. Cheryl was a wonderful woman and a loving and caring grandmother. I will always remember her friendly smile and how much fun we all had at family gatherings and the time we went to Atlantic City. Please know that I am always here for you. God bless you and your family, Bob

“ Dear Tom, Shana, Tommy and Stacey,

Please accept my heartfelt condolences on Cheryl's passing. She was a great person and presence in all our lives. I will miss her smile and the loving way she cared for all of you and most especially Cameron and Mason. I knew her only a short time and will miss her much and regret that I was not able to get to know her. Her light will continue to shine in all our lives and I will always remember her well.
