“ Back in the day Chris and I took off on a whim and ended up in Mexico. Lots of fun and great memories. He was a good person. Rest easy my friend...

“ It was with utmost sorrow and sadness to learn about Chris’s passing! He was a gentleman who loved and cared about his family. Our sincere condolences and prayers to Cathy, Michael, Chris and Nicholas and their families. Every corner in my house reminds me of his fine professional work. We lost a good friend who will never be forgotten.

“ My husband Brian and I were so saddened to learn that Chris passed. He was an outstanding person. So kind, gentle warm and caring. He did some construction work in my house and it was always a joy to see him. He and Cathey were so thoughtful. I remember that they planted my outdoor planters with beautiful flowers as a surprise welcome home gift to us. He will be missed and always remembered with love. We feel lucky to have known him.

“ My favorite story from Christ is about the stolen sunglasses . These sunglasses were stolen from his car by a valet. While other people would have seconded guessed that they were even in there or decided there’s nothing I can do . Christ dug his heels in . Didn’t back down and in the end , won.
Christ you will be missed . Kim
