“ Christa was the first one to welcome my family to the neighborhood when we moved here 20 years ago. She was always smiling and loved showing off her dogs-first Daisy then Sparkles. She was like the mayor of the neighborhood-she knew everyone and they knew her. She had a wonderful zest for life. I will miss her.

We will miss Christa! She was a kind and caring neighbor. Her life story of leaving Germany, to meeting her husband was a testimony to her strength and character. She was so inquisitive and enjoyed sharing her knowledge and had a keen desire to learn. She will always be in our thoughts and prayers. The Mack Family
