“ I will miss Aunt Claire's sweet, kind, helpful and humble ways and faith-filled advice. She helped me in times of need and even in my very young age scooped me out of a duck pond (literally) and bathed me in milk and tomato juice until the stink was gone! Later on in life she displayed loyalty and faithfully took care of her ailing Mom while raising her own wonderful children. Aunt Claire and her family were there for me as a young adult parent, for which I will be forever grateful, advising me to always keep my son close. She even helped me to quit smoking by saying, "Joette, sometimes you can do things for others rather than for yourself." She told the best family tree stories and sent me the best emails. She was my Aunt but also a friend, who I will miss very much. Love you always, your niece, Joette
