“ yooooo what up boi....took me a min to find u so least I could speak my peace. It was yesterday when u was buying video games off me n cuz. Playing ball all summer in the parks up n down the blocks all over the Ton. Running out of vacant houses form the police lol that nite was crazy fun but crazy. Sitting outside till three four in the am sometimes breaking day all of us talking on what we want to wit our lives. Damn though cant believe ur gone. Aye tell u what though if u cant sneek me in through the back door or window just get me to that gates so I cant try n talk my way in. Boiz for life big boi....El..

Thought of u, miss u. Think of u often. How u came to the house, asked if my son and nephew could go with u, lol, knew y'all was up to something. Never brought it to the house though. Knew somehow, " if they stick together, they will be ok". Is what I told myself. You were like the 3rd child of our fam. Love u... "V"

“ My Heart goes out to all iof Coles family members and Loved ones. He was a very nice, good man. I had the pleasure of spending time with him a quite few times, and they were all filled with enjoyment. Coles helped me to purchase my first car as well as helping me to get my drivers license. He was that kind of helpful and caring person. My deepest sympathy for your loss.

“ Hey coles. Remember those "crazy times"we had at KFC...oh man I wish I could bring those days back...well what can I say besides I will never ever forget about you. Who can I run to now when "you now who" starts acting up... I know u got tired of me calling u,complaining,but you was always there for me with that "big" heart of yours never once let me down. I had many "good" times with you. From summer school to KFC to when I seen you last at your house that night with the "car" issue. Nevertheless, you was a good person. Words right now can't describe the person you was. You was amazing always had me laughing. You will be missed greatly.
