

Danae Papageorge

June 4, 1928 - July 8, 2012

Danae Koutsopoulos, soprano, attended the Juilliard School of Music on a voice scholarship, receiving her B.S. degree while serving as assistant to Mme. Soudant, Juilliard voice teacher. Miss Koutsopoulos then went on to receive her M.A. in Music from Columbia University. She has toured with the Robert Shaw Chorale under the International Exchange Program of the State Department, gave a solo recital for the King and Queen of Greece, appeared as soloist with the Huntington (L.I.) Symphony Orchestra and was heard in the premiere of Vaughan Williams "Benedicite" for orchestra, chorus and soprano solo, singing the solo part with the National Symphony Orchestra under Howard Mitchell. This is her New York recital debut.
