Such an emotional journey was shared by the slideshow of Diane and her family. It is obvious that spending quality time with her children, grandchildren and extended family was at the center of her life. I never had the pleasure of meeting you but I know from the stories shared by Lori that you were a force to be reckoned with! God bless you and may you rest in peace...much love, Sarah Thomas xxx

“ Over 12 years ago I met Diane at my first Hospice bereavement session & we hit it off right away. There were 3 of us: myself (Janet, Catherine & Diane. We met many times a year. First to Catherine's for cocktails (Diane liked Martinis with 3 olives) then on to Freeport for dinner. Love you Diane! You will be missed greatly.

“ Diane was my friend for only 13 years. We met in a bereavement group after our husbands died. Her sense of humor, her love of fun, her optimism, were all the more remarkable as Fate had dealt her sometimes bad cards. But she played the hand with grace and courage, deflecting "the slings and arrows of outrageous Fortune". We would go out with Janet, another friend from the bereavement group, for a few stiff drinks - Diane loved her vodka! - delicious meals at good restaurants. We talked about family, about love and second chances, about friendship and its responsibilities and joys. We laughed a lot. She loved her family intensely and was proud of them, and like all mothers, worried about them and their places in a world that was becoming more and more complicated. Her observations of people and situations was sometimes caustic, sometimes funny, but always on the mark! Condolences go to her family. And when the sharpness of grief subsides, I pray that they will remember Diane with love and pride and a modicum of joy for having had the privilege of being loved by her. I pray that God will grant Diane eternal peace, a gentle rest. I will miss her very much. Her friendship was a joy in my life. Catherine Bruckner

“ Our friendship started over 40 years ago with two little girls in kindergarten, from there we just added to our friendship over the years! School functions, dance recitals, Dix Hill pool, days @ beach. Had many lunch & dinner's together, with plenty of laughs & happy times. I was happy to be able to spend time last summer with both her & Dan and we spent the whole day laughing & going through our friendship over the years, it was wonderful! Will miss our phone calls that we always kept up with! Rest In Peace dear friend, 💔
