“ I've been searching for my childhood friend for a few years now and only knew her maiden name, Innusa. How sad it was for me to find this. I talked her into a talent show in Saint Hugh's in 1970? and we won the first round and lost the second. She was such a lovely young girl and I'm sure she grew up to me a lovely woman. I so wanted to touch base with her again, how tragic. I see her mom lived to 95; that's amazing. Rest in Peace my friend, Love,, Patricia Ingraldi (Ballard)

“ I have known Dianne since she was a child. We lived near one another on Columbia Street. I remember I took her shopping for an outfit for her graduation from St Hugh's. I last spoke with her about a month ago, thanking her for taking care of her mom, Mattie. She sounded so good. I am so sorry this has happened and I will keep her in my daily prayers. May she rest in peace, a beautiful face for God. Love, Martha Dolciamore
