“ My deepest condolences to the rest of the family. And friends. I pray that God continue to keep, strengthen and comfort each of you. And may he give you peace to get through each day. My name Is Tiffany Hogarth also known as Tiffany Solomon. Dio is my Godmother. I'm just finding out of this passing. It breaks my heart , but atleast she is not suffering any more. I will always hold in my heart the times we spent, me helping her and grandma Olga at the house and playing with the cats and dogs and having deep conversations. Dio was a beautiful person inside and out and may her soul RIP.

“ Dio Smith was a hero of my youth. A bright flame, a revolutionary, a rebel, and a poet. She was fearless and kind, hilarious and utterly unique. She deserved a LIFE and fought to have one. In 1965 at age 11 at Fire Place Lodge she played Turkey in the Straw on her violin and brought the house down. Heaven has her now. my deepest sympathies to you Olga.

“ Dio was an amazing human being. She had a great sense of humor and a loving heart for her mom, friends and animals. I have wonderful childhood memories of playing with Dio at the beach and later ones of discussions about our animals and about life in general. My husband and I were both praying that Dio would conquer her illness and were so sad to hear of her passing. She was truly a unique individual who will be missed. God bless her and her mom.

“ So sorry to lose Dio. She had a great spirit and attitude. Charlie and I fully expected she would win this battle.

Through her work, Dio's life was centered on caring for others. We will remember her kindness and love for her Mom, family, friends, and neighbors, and of course, for all of God's creatures especially cats and dogs. Dio will be greatly missed.

Olga, we admire your devotion and fortitude. Our hearts go out to you.

With sympathy and love, Charlie and Betsy
