

Dolores N. Albuquerque

February 20, 1933 - December 10, 2014

Dolores Kreszenzia Niedermeir Albuquerque, of Huntington, NY, passed away in her sleep on December 10, 2014 after a long illness. She showed amazing strength throughout her illness and was surrounded by close family and friends until the end.

Dolores was born on February 20, 1933 in the Bronx but then she lived in Augsburg, Germany for several years. Returning to the United States for kindergarten, Dolores excelled in school and graduated with honors from Andrew Jackson High School in Queens, NY in 1951. Dolores met Manuel Albuquerque at a YMCA dance in early 1953 and they were married on September 8 of that year. Fast-forward 17 Weimaraner puppies, 3 children and 2 grandchildren later, they celebrated their 50th anniversary together in 2003.

Dolores loved her family and always put them first. Dolores steadfastly cared for and helped anyone and everyone she could, including the neighborhood squirrels. Dolores was a gifted cook and loved to prepare elaborate meals for her family and friends. Dolores was also skilled with crochet needles and made countless blankets and scarfs. She treasured spending time with her children and grandchildren.

Dolores was preceded in death by her husband Manuel Sylvestre and her mother Veronika. Dolores is survived by her children Janis Margaret (and her husband Michael D. Fay), Lynne Veronika, and Carl Sylvestre (and Barbara); and her granddaughters Erin Veronika and Allison Veronika Limberg.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to the American Cancer Society in Dolores' memory.

“ Dolores , my very dear, dear friend , {sometimes we called one another sister,s }

We meet in Bayside , NY 1967 we were neighbors .When my son Andy was born , 1975, Manuel , Dolores and children, moved to Huntington , NY . We kept in touch .And in 1984 , we moved , long distance , to Texas .We kept in touchGino and I , as soon as we landed at La Guardia , called , and we went out to Huntington to see them.

I made a special trip up to New York to see my friend Dolores in oct. 2014 , I knew in my heart , I would never see her again. She had fought long and hard for several years, I knew it was time to ' go home " , and be with her husband Manuel , and her Mother . She has no more pain , no more worries , she is at peace , and I miss her !!!!
