“ When I arrived here from Mexico, Mrs. Sherland was one of many people who lent me a hand. I always admired her wit, sense of humor, and poise. I remember how energetic she was, and how proud she was of her boys.... and of her strawberry jam! Thanks to people like her and Mr. Sherland, I am able to live the American dream. Who would have thought that I could now look out my window at night and see her house up on the hill shining as bright as her smile.

It is with great fondness that I think of Edie. May God remind you every day of the most formidable mother you had.

Sincerely,
