“ *I was inspired by Edie's books at Goldsmiths College London University. I was looking for anthropologists who believed in the spiritual side of life. But her writing was much more than belief. Her intellectual excellence was mixed with deep humanity and love for others, just shining out of every page, especially her book Communitas. I wrote to Edie in 2014 when I was struggling with my PhD. She was so helpful and her emails helped me to carry on to the finish line. I will miss you in this world Edie but will meet you in my prayers.*
