“ I will always love you Grandma and cherish my memories with you forever and ever. The many special times we spent together will never be forgotten and always hold a place in my heart. Growing up you were one of my most favorite people in the world, and as you knew there were a few reasons I left Melbourne Florida way back when, but only one reason I chose to move to Huntington Long Island. ❤️❤️❤️ Until we meet again in heaven, I hope you find peace and happiness with Grandpa, "Momma" and "Daddy" and so many of your loved ones who have been waiting there for you. We'll have our "thanksgiving dinner", I'll bring the roaster chicken and you make the stove top dressing and we'll play ulcers until we can't stay awake anymore. 😊 I love you Grandma, and message from Dylan, "I love you Peanut". ❤️🙏😊

“ For those of us who grew up on Claire Ave, We knew her as Aunt Edna. I practically lived at her house. Veronica and I were best friends from the playpen on up. She was really more like my second Mom.

I have so many fond childhood memories. Edna was always helpful assisting us in our endeavors to play house whether it be under the wisteria bushes, in the back yard or in the basement under the stairwell, and we could always count on a homemade piece of of poppy seed cake or cookies and milk. We played many card games over the years at the kitchen table. She also taught me how to play solitaire. :)

She would help us get jars so we could catch fire flies at night, or cans and string to make play phones. We would build houses out of cards and do puzzles. So many puzzles.

Aunt Edna used to iron peoples clothes, and watching her taught me how to iron & fold sheets, which was something that helped me throughout my life.

When my babies were born, she made each of them a blanket. To this day, my children still have them to pass on to their own children. After I moved to New Hampshire, I got a letter in the mail, In it was a piece of my long hair she had found while cleaning her meat slicer. I will never forget her. Her laugh, her smile, her joy and love for life. The simple pleasures in life were her greatest joys. Especially the children.

Aunt Edna, I love forever.

Love, Peggy

My family moved to 11 Claire Ave on Oct 3, 1952. I was 4 and Edna was our new neighbor. Ours became a close knit neighborhood in no time. Everyone got along and had families that looked out for each other. Most of us never left home except for marriage or death. I just want to say thank you to Edna, for being part of the foundation that we all relied on to make us secure in our growth years so we could become the people we are today. Our moms, remained friends for a lifetime. Our dads passed earlier. Nonetheless they were all a part of the Great Generation and they raised our generation with great love and success. I will always remember you fondly. Rest in Peace .

“ No amount of words could ever express what I truly feel. You have always stood so firmly in your path, the anchor, the rock, no matter how hard the wind you didn't bend. As years have passed you alone have persevered as you watched others continue on their journey, it's your turn now, journey on and take our messages to heaven. You taught me the true meaning of family and what it means to be a part of something so priceless. The matriarch of our family where one thing lacked you were there to fill the void, stories among stories of how we became to be who we are, in this time and in this place. Your love was endless and free to all who needed it. I am grateful for you and I will always love you to infinity and beyond. It's time to rest easy my auntie and fly among the angels. You will be forever in my heart. And I promise you, Yaya will be ok. I will make sure of it!!! Xo

“ Not a day will pass that your memory and life won't cross my mind. You have touched and blessed so many in your 98 years. I'll be forever grateful and will cherish every sweet moment we've shared. I'll think of you when I eat ice cream, watch John eat shrimp (because you know I'm not eating it!) and over cook the pasta just like you liked it. The image of you sitting in your favorite chair with one of your many books will be burned in my mind for the rest of my days. Love you and miss you always. Tillme meet again. Keep your fork Nana!

Love your Melissa
