“ *To the Wenk family,
As you already know, your Mother (and Oma) certainly had her share of heartache. Now is the time for us all to focus on the many joys and many good times she had in her life. These joys in large part related to the lives of and the love from all of her children & grandchildren.*

I've had the pleasure of her company on several occasions over the past 30 plus years. She was always a classy lady with a beautiful smile and a great disposition. May you all keep that picture of her in your minds too.
