

Elizabeth Pagano Bamberger

November 20, 1942 - May 8, 2024

Elizabeth Roberts Pagano Bamberger— 11/20/42 – 5/8/24 – of Huntington Station, passed peacefully after a long, hard-fought illness. She was surrounded by her entire family as they honored her incredible life.

She was the cherished daughter of the late Lawrence and Ruth Pagano. Beloved mother of Liz (Tricia), Roy (Cheryl), Scott (Cindy), and Richard (Jen). Adored Gramma of Jenny (Evan), Joey (Aimee), Michael (Alexandra), Philip (Caitlin), Meagan, Kristen (Dave), Lexi (Victoria), Scotty (Celesse), Chris, Olivia, Emily, and Juliana. Treasured GG Beth to Alexander, Brayden, Joelle, Reagan, Cameron, Freya, Hilde, and two little ones on the way. The day God's chariot arrived to take Beth home, the news of her 9th great-grandchild was ushered in. Her puppies, Charlie and Rosie, will miss her dearly.

A true patriot who worked tirelessly to support her family and friends, providing love, shelter, and time, to those in need. Her door was always open. Recognized as the National Bus Driver of the Year while serving her community at Huntington Coach Bus Company for over 40 years. An original Levittown resident who loved sharing her time at the East Village Green pool with six generations of her family. Mom, Gramma, and GG Beth has sculpted us into being kind, decent, and loving people; she will always live on in our hearts and always be remembered.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made in Elizabeth's memory to:
