“ Ellen was my best friend in junior high school. I spent so many days with her and had such a great time. Due to my own life crisis in 2012, I didn't open her Christmas card from that year until now before this holiday. In that card she revealed to me that she was suffering from breast cancer. I had no idea. I didn't get to tell her what a wonderful person she was and the impact she had on my life. I was privileged to have her in my life.
