“I have the pleasure of knowing his son and daughter-in-law and their beautiful children for a number of years and I was lucky enough to have had a beautiful Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. F. Larese and their children and families. My prayers go out to the family and I hope Mr. Larese finds peace with God and that the family finds peace knowing that he is safe with God and that he will never suffer again. I know that his children were the best children that a parent could ask for and I know that they loved him beyond words as he loved them.”

“A cousin that always had a smile....loved to laugh....and always enjoyable to be around. He will be missed greatly but now he can look down at all of us and laugh, not at us but with us.
