

Frances Paris

December 9, 1933 - April 28, 2025

Frances was a pillar of strength, love, and unwavering resilience, she touched every life she encountered with grace and warmth.

She dedicated her life to her family, working tirelessly to provide, nurture, and protect. Her strength knew no bounds—whether in the face of adversity or in the quiet moments of everyday life, she met every challenge with courage and dignity.

She was not only a devoted mother but also a source of wisdom and comfort. Her love was unconditional, her sacrifices countless, and her impact immeasurable. Her laughter, her stories, and her fierce spirit will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

Though she is no longer with us in body, her spirit remains a guiding light. She was, and always will be, our rock—our mother.

“ Fran and I met years ago at Countrywood School. As we spoke we discovered that we grew up in the same town--inwood L.I. What a connection! Fran was absolutely wonderful to me. She was just so kind and helpful. Such a strong and amazing lady who truly believed in her faith. May you rest in peace. Love, Andrea frisenda

Fran was a person who saw the best in me and I am sure many others as well. Her inclusiveness steadied me when I was going through trauma and her kindness will always be remembered. I am so grateful she was a very close friend of my mother's and I would like to believe they are reunited in friendship in heaven as well. My heart goes out to Sue, Sally, Penny, Patty, Mary and John for your great loss. Hugs to you all, Julia Kerner
