

Frank W. Mayes Jr.

October 13, 1932 - February 13, 2025

Frank Mayes, a devoted husband, loving father, and talented musician, passed away peacefully on February 13, 2025, at the age of 92. He leaves behind a legacy of love, dedication, and creativity that will forever be cherished by those who knew him.

Frank was married to the love of his life, Geraldine Mayes, for over 35 wonderful years. Together, they built a life filled with laughter, music, and unwavering support. He was a proud and devoted father to their daughter, Gina Mayes, who was his greatest joy. Frank is survived by a younger brother, Maurice Mayes, his wife, Rachel Mayes, and many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

For over 30 years, Frank worked as an Accounting Manager with Lerner Corporation, where his diligence and integrity earned him the respect of colleagues and clients alike. Before working with Lerner Corporation, Frank served during the Korean War with the US Air Force, A1 Korea. Outside of work, Frank's true passion was music. A gifted songwriter and multi-instrumentalist, Frank found joy in creating melodies that reflected the beauty and emotions of life. His music brought comfort and happiness to many, and his talent will live on in the notes he left behind. Frank also loved to act and wrote and performed in several off-broadway shows with a local acting group.

Frank will be remembered for his kindness and his warm spirit. His presence will be deeply missed, but his love and legacy will live on in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know him.

A service to celebrate Frank's life will be held on 2/28/2025 at Calverton Cemetery. Rest in Peace, Frank. Your song will never fade

“ The last time I saw my Uncle Frank was not that long ago, you would never believe he was in his late 80's. I remember him laughing, talking and giving us something to drink, last words to me was "take care". I will have to do that with a heavier heart now. Rest in peace Uncle Frank, you will be missed, and thank you for the music. Love Geri and Albert
