September 6, 1928 - April 12, 2025

In Loving Memory of George C. Singfield Jr.

September 6, 1928 – April 12, 2025

George C. Singfield Jr., a beloved son, brother, uncle, and devoted member of his community, peacefully entered eternal rest on Saturday, April 12, 2025, at the age of 96.

Born on September 6, 1928, in Augusta, Georgia, George was the second eldest child of the late George C. Singfield Sr. and Lola F. (Stanley) Singfield. Raised in a nurturing home grounded in faith, family, and hard work, he carried these core values with him throughout his life, shaping the man he became.

George was preceded in death by his parents, his cherished sisters Mamie L. (Singfield) McDonald and DeArtelia Singfield, and his beloved niece Coltia McDonald Parker.

He leaves behind a loving family who will deeply miss him: his brother Robert F. Singfield Sr. (Doris); his niece Karen L. Copeland (Garris) of Ellenwood, GA; and nephews Robert F. Singfield Jr. of Bowie, MD, Martin V. McDonald (Tuesday) of Peekskill, NY; Zolly L. McDonald (Leslie) of Yorktown Heights, NY; Peter Kofi McDonald of Decatur, GA; and Robert J. McDonald of Decatur, GA.

George attended Ossining High School and Shaw University before proudly serving his country in the United States Air Force, where he attained the rank of Sergeant. A thoughtful writer and lifelong lover of music, George's varied career paths reflected his deep desire to make a meaningful impact on the world. He used his talents and experiences as a vehicle to influence public discourse, uplift children, support organizations, and serve his community.

He will be remembered for his quiet strength, gentle spirit, and unwavering love for his family and friends. George's presence was a source of wisdom and peace, and his legacy will continue to inspire all who knew him.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, May 17, 2025, from 2:00 PM - 4:00 PM

“ It is not possible to put into words what George meant to me as a professional or as a person. He had an enormous impact on my life and on the lives of thousands of others. George had a scholarly way about him. He never stopped teaching even when having a personal conversation with him. His impact was immeasurable. The same can be said of his loss. Rest easier now, my friend. You've more than earned it.

“ I met George only a few weeks after starting at ACLD in 2021, and had the privilege of writing an article on him, aptly titled “The Man That’s Lived a Thousand Lives”— a life of service, compassion, leadership and love. I am so honored to have met George, and hope we continue to honor legacy and memory by providing enviable lives to the people that turn to ACLD for support.

We first met George in 1971 when our now 56 year old autistic son was 3 years old. He had the knowledge and foresight back then when few others had heard of autism. I worked with him on the ACLD Professional Advisory Board before he became an employee of ACLD. He was a true treasure to so many. I'm sure would like donations in his memory to be sent to ACLD.org in Bethpage, NY... 807 So Oyster Bay Rd, Bethpage, NY 11714. A lasting tribute can then be established there in his memory.
