“ I come from Os, Norway. I wasn't born until 1966 and have never met Gerd. However, Gerd's husband, Bjarne (1920-2006), had an older brother Johannes Haugland (1916-1986), whom I knew and called "onkel Johannes", as he was married to my great-aunt Gjertrud (1919-2007).

Since I dabble in genealogy, I did a few Internet searches when I learned that several members of onkel Johannes's family had emigrated to the USA in the 1950s, but it wasn't until January 2019 that I actually succeeded in getting in touch with someone. The first family member in America that I got a response from, was Gerd! She immediately invited me to be her Facebook friend and put me in touch with other relatives in the US!

Gerd and I communicated in Norwegian only, and she always seemed very warm and friendly. I am sad I never got to meet Gerd in person, but through her I am now friends with her daughter Betty Ann, her grandniece Anne Christine, and others.

My father and his sisters remember Gerd and Bjarne from before they moved to the US, and my friendship with Gerd online has sparked interesting conversations about their life here in Norway in the 1950s. Gerd came from a big family blessed with longevity, and she had many living siblings in Os until very recently.

Thank you for sharing that video with so many old pictures on this memorial page. I felt (and still feel) a connection with Gerd, and I hope our families will keep in touch. May she rest in peace!
