“ The Haydens were a large part of our lives when my sister and I were young. We spent many camping vacations and holidays with Aunt Gloria, Uncle Ralph, Craig and Glen. Oddly enough Craig and I were the same age and my sister and Glen were the same age! Glen was always the quiet one just hanging around and looking cute. He was always close to his mom even to the end of her life. Both he and Rosanne took her death very hard. Every time I think of Glen, I can see him at 5 or 6 years old swinging from a location sign at the campground to scuffing his feet in the sand roadways to make "smoke" in the air. He was never a big talker but his actions and eyes told you everything. We haven't been in touch for many years but whenever we did see each other, he was always that soft speaking little kid I knew from our childhood. Glen will be missed and I know he's in a better place now, so my little cousin, "rest in peace"
