

Gloria Marie Mollico

June 24, 1922 - June 8, 2020

Gloria Mollico, soon to be 98, died on Monday, June 8, 2020 from the Corona virus.

Born in Huntington, N. Y. on June 24, 1922, was the daughter of Charles Fox and Mary Schwab Fox and the wife of the late Vincent L. Mollico. She resided in Huntington for all her life and attended St. Hugh of Lincoln school and Walt Whitman High School. Gloria was always an avid sports fan and was named best athlete in her class. At age 19, she married her high school sweetheart, Vinnie. When he was deployed overseas during World War 2, Gloria worked at Grumman Aircraft where she assembled controls for the fighter planes. She also worked at Washington Elementary School and Adobe Artes, a Native American shop. Well into her nineties, she was still active and enjoyed swimming, golf and long beach walks collecting sea glass. Her favorite activity was attending her grandchildren and great-grandchildren's athletic events.

Survivors include two daughters, Mary Anne Pettit and Kathleen Burlage, both of Huntington. She has seven grandchildren ...Lara Pettit Breingan (Peter), Kari Pettit, Suzanne Pettit (Axel Yberg), T. Christopher Pettit (Jill), Erica Nottingham (Don), Casey Burlage (Ashley), Amy Thomas (Callum). Gloria is also survived by fifteen great-grandchildren: Theron Viljoen, Peter Breingan, Thomas Breingan, James Nottingham, Orion Yberg, Charles Nottingham, Gloria Yberg, Christopher Breingan, T. Christopher Pettit¹¹¹, Henry Nottingham, Jessa Ray Pettit, Elliot Burlage, Alistair Thomas, Tristan Burlage and Harris Thomas.

“ Beautiful woman! Welcoming, energetic, athletic, joyful. Wonderful memories of boating out to Sand City for full days of sun, swimming, water skiing with Gloria and Vinny, Kathy, Aunt Dinah and Uncle Chinny. Thinking of Gloria/DD with love, knowing that she is in the arms of Vinny and God. 🙏💛 Bobbi Franco Adams
