“ I'm so sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. Take comfort in knowing that our heavenly creator will soon remove all pain, sorrow, and death forever! May this promise, recorded in Rev. 21:3,4 be of comfort as you gain the inner peace and strength to cope with the days ahead, Phil. 4:13.

“ A few years ago, it was a record breaking summer. My air conditioner had gone on the blink and I live on the second floor Saw Harry at 7-11, he asked after my auntie and asked how I was doing, I started telling him about the air conditioner problem I had-he said, " Follow me." Perplexed, I got in my car and followed him to his home, where he proceeded to lift up his garage door and pulled out a Commercial sized air conditioner!! Helped me load it in my car, and followed me home, then installed it, because it was so heavy!! I offered him some money, he wouldn't take it. He knew that I was taking care of an elderly woman with health issues and he didn't want her health compromised by the heat. Besides, my auntie don't do cooling centers!!!LOL!

When Scooter, my auntie's Jack Russel, was attacked by a pit bull, his stomach had been bitten. I called Harry-he came over and took all of us to the Animal Hospital in Plainview(the one on Jericho turnpike couldn't fix the wound).....

Scooter made it to Heaven, I know he will find this angel there named Harry because he saved his life that day. May your family find peace in knowing that you made such an impact on our community and showed us regular people what a hero looks like.

Gone too soon.

Rest in peace.

Words cannot express my feelings, however, please know Eva, and Harry Sr. that the entire Williams Family are in my prayers. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy and know that God is with you in the darkest hour and will see you through. May He who gives us life, give you comfort and peace as you traverse this time of bereavement.

*With Deepest Sympathy,
Your Friend, Mildred A. Seon*

It is with tremendous sadness and a heavy heart that I bid my cousin and friend farewell. I have so many memories to cherish and I know they will eventually bring comfort. "Harry-O's" infectious laugh and bear hugs will be missed as much as the man himself but never be forgotten.

There are no words to accurately express my love and comfort to John, Aunt Eva, Uncle Harry, Derrick & Nikki, Angela & Tony, Rodney & Candy and the ENTIRE family.

*From the bottom of my heart,
Rosalind Smith*
