“ Harry was a kind and talented man. He would bring us the most beautiful flowers: enormous tulips and dahlias in all colors; he made breathtaking wreaths for the Lab's buildings; he kept everything clean and tidy. Harry was a man of many talents; he was a friend to many; he was humble and generous. Rest in Peace.

“ Harry was a good guy . I worked with him for many years at the lab. Years ago he would ride his bike over to Mohlenhoffs to see me when I had my hit and miss engines at their fall harvest weekend. He would tell me stories about Huntington when he was young. He was at the train crash behind Agway, they called him Peaches when he was young. Going to the drive in movies hiding in the rumble seat. I would go to his house to fix his leaks when needed and we would wind up walking around his back yard Looking at his fruit trees and tractors. I liked him 😊
