AN

“ Dear Mommy,

I want to thank you for the wonderful years I lived with you. It might have been short lived, but I think you did a very good job. I didn't turn out too bad. I think I blocked out a lot of those memories, but you were the first one I called after I had Lynn 52 years ago. I remember Daddy and you picking me up to take back to your house. I'm so glad we had these wonderful years together. Lori and I were coming out on Friday to see you, but God needed some more beauty in His garden so He took you.

I think God must have the prettiest garden. It broke my heart when Jayne called to tell me the very sad news.

Love always and forever,

Anne
