“ “Grandma Helen” as Maria and I affectionately called her, was a wonderful grandmother. She always had a kind word to say and a smile on her face. As her first grandchild, I like to think that we shared a special bond. Even though our family moved all over during our childhood, Grandma and Grandpa always came to see us and still somehow always seemed to have boundless energy to shower us with affection and attention. It’s such a small thing, but as kids, Grandma taught us a little game where you sing a song and go through the entire alphabet making up funny little stories. We called it “A, my name is Anna.” I sing that song with my little ones now and it always brings back so many happy memories of such a sweet and fun-loving Grandma. I wish they were able to know her. We were all so lucky to have her. We love you and will remember you always Grandma ❤️

“ Our Mom, Grandmother, Great-grandmother, Aunt, Cousin, Friend was a beautiful person and is a beautiful soul. The adjective “beautiful” comes to my mind when she’s on my mind. We were all touched in a special way by the love she had for each of us. Love means caring, giving, forgiving, nurturing and selflessness; her love was truly unconditional. God put her on the path of those of us whose life was touched by her love in a very special way. You will forever be cherished.

“ Grandma , words cannot describe how much I am going to miss you and how much I love you! I know that right now you are pain free and you and grandpa are watching over us and dancing like you guys always used to do. Thank you for always being there for me , you have seen me at my highest and definitely at my lowest. When I came to visit you on Sunday and I said “hi grandma it’s Alessia , I love you “ your eyes moved like you wanted to say something , like you heard me ...my mom and I were so shocked , and you know what I KNOW You heard me. I will always carry you in my heart! Thank you for everything !!! I love you soooo much grandma !!!

“ As I’m packing up my family to head out of town to say goodbye to her physical body, I know her spirit is all around us and in heaven where she is pain free and dancing with angels, I thought about all the times she might have been inconvenienced by packing up to visit us, taking off work or catching a flight but she ALWAYS showed up, until she couldn’t. I have so many memories of her but one that will always stand out is our last phone call, she was making meatballs and asked if she could call me back, she was starting to lose her memory so she was writing things down I think and she followed through, she remembered to call me back and it was so very special. On Mother’s Day just days before she passed I called her house again and asked if I could wish her a Happy Mother’s Day, I wanted her to hear my voice one more time. My request was denied but I asked for the message to be given to her and I’m so glad I was able to dial her number one last time on Mother’s Day.

“ As the first born of Mom's 4 sons, she was my friend, teacher, play mate and educator. I have so many amazing memories, but the one that was always my favorite was when she was walking me home from first grade one day and she suddenly challenged me to a race; I didn't even know she could run, but she was really fast!!! She was actually quick to get any and every task completed with alacrity!! After so many bedridden years prior to her passing, I dream that she is running in Heaven, waiting to challenge me to another race that she will likely win....Joseph Iannone
