“ My Aunt Helen was one of a kind. I will miss her very much. As kids, nobody could make us laugh like Aunt Helen did. The family Christmas parties always revolved around her and her fun games and prizes. I am happy to have some of her beautiful, crocheted doilies. It seemed like she must have crocheted a thousand pair of slippers which everyone in the family and all of her friends wore. Aunt Helen was very creative and made some beautiful things. Yes, I will miss her very much.

“ Helen was a fiercely independent woman and a friend. She used to walk to her Greenlawn church every Sunday and helped out at their many events. She tackled problems and faced hardships as they came up head-on without complaining. She shared recipes, cooked her own meals and was on a phone chain offering support & encouragement to others. Rest in peace. Love, Betty Chatfield

“ A lovely woman who will be missed dearly
A strong woman of faith
A dear friend and sister in Christ
Love you always Helen
May you rest in eternal peace
