“ I am sorry for your loss. May you rely on the God of all comfort during this difficult time (2Corinthians 1:3,4) He provides us with the hope of seeing our loved ones again by means of the resurrection (Isaiah 26:19 and John 5:28,29) We can trust this promise because it is impossible for God to lie (Hebrews 6:18)

“ Dearest Debbie

My sincerest sympathy at the loss of your mother. I know how you feel and hope that you will take comfort in the words someone said to me when my mother passed away.

You can shed tears that she is gone or you can smile because she lived. You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back or you can open your eyes and see all she's left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see her or you can be full of the love you shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember her and only that she's gone or you can cherish her memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind be empty and turn your back or you can do what she'd want - smile, open your eyes, love and go on knowing she is watching over you

“ As your loving aunt, my thoughts and sympathies are with you, as well as the knowledge that you gave of yourself, always, to your family . . . Your mother adored you, and I cannot think of a single thing you could have done to have made her passing into the next dimension and into the arms of her Creator easier than you did! Your love and devotion to your mother will remain with me forever. Rest easy now, dear, and know that many love you deeply. Aunt Maria
